Salary: Based on Teacher Scales + Experience

Full Time, September 2020

Independent Catholic Day School for boys and girls aged 2-11 years.

St Pius X Preparatory School, 200 Garstang Road, Fulwood, Preston

St Pius X is a vibrant independent preparatory school in the heart of Fulwood in Preston. It is an exciting community where everyone feels valued and respected. Children are treated as individuals, nurtured and cared for – we stimulate high academic achievement by building self-esteem. The school has a particularly strong reputation for manners, courtesy and bespoke learning opportunities. Our children progress to sought after senior schools such as Lancaster Grammar, Stoneyhurst College, Westholme School, Kirkham Grammar and Bolton School.

We are looking for a qualified teacher – QTS/PGCE, who will inspire a love of learning and display a genuine passion for the delivery of excellence here at St Pius X Prep. [Strong NQTs with excellent references are welcome to apply]. We want team players who are willing to contribute to the co-curricular life of the school. Musical ability would be an asset. Our children make excellent progress and we are proud of the support we give to them and their parents as they prepare for entry into their secondary schools. The roles call for dynamism and energy and a real desire to treat our children as individuals, thus encouraging our children to be the best that they can be.

Please visit our website www.stpiusx.co.uk and call us for further information on 01772 719937. To apply for these roles, please submit a completed application form and a letter to the Headmaster, detailing how you meet the competencies in the job specification and why you think you are suitable for the post. Application Forms and Job Specification are available on the website.
